February 2018 Volume 25 Issue 6

President's Note

Greetings, Tulsa Area Prime Timers!

It's time for winter to pay it's call on us. Let's hope for a short winter and an early spring.

Our January meeting was great! We had good discussions, fun, and some delicious refreshments afterwards.

Remember our monthly events: Dine Out, Lunch Bunch, Movie Night, and Breakfast at Duffy's.

Check the newsletter calendar and join us for fun times and friendship!

See you at our next meeting on February 13th.

Hug a Prime Timer today!

Love, Jim MacCatain.

I pulled into a crowded parking lot and rolled down the car windows to make sure my Labrador Retriever had fresh air. She was stretched out on the back seat, and I wanted to impress upon her that she must remain there. I walked to the curb backward, pointing my finger at the car and repeated emphatically, "Now you stay. Do you hear me? Stay! Stay!"

The driver of a nearby car, perhaps noting that I am a blond, gave me a strange look and said, "Why don't you just put it in park?"

A Time to Reflect

Winter gives us time to reflect on failures of the past and reorganize our thinking for Spring is coming fast.

We thumb through seed catalogues and suddenly it's Spring as we dream beside a cozy fire of blubirds on the wing. Winter gives us time to think of things we need to do with a new year at our doorstep when hope is anew.

The ice and snow will soon be mud as earth begins to thaw, before a myriad of Spring flowers leaves every heart in awe. Winter gives us a brief respite from work that lies ahead when we labor in our gardens and Grandma's flower bed. Every season has a purpose according to God's plan; it proves that He's been in control ever since the world began!

Clay Harrison

No Enemies

You have no enemies, you say?
Alas! My friend, the boast is poor;
He who has mingled in the fray
Of duty, that the brave endure,
Must have made foes! If you have none,
Small is the work that you have done.
You've hit no traitor on the hip,
You've dashed no cup from perjured lip,
You've never turned the wrong to right,
You've been a coward in the fight.
