August 2018 Volume 25 Issue 12

President's Note

Greetings, Tulsa Area Prime Timers!

I hope that everyone is doing well.

The July meeting was very good. We talked about the fun we had at the cookout. And we discussed ideas for our 25th Anniversary Party in September. At our meeting in August we will decide on the venue for the party.

After the meeting we had cookies and lemonade, and laughed and talked.

Remember our monthly events: Dine Out, Lunch Bunch, Movie Night, and Breakfast at Duffy's. Check the newsletter calendar for dates and locations, then join us for fun and friendship.

See you at our next meeting on August 14th.

Hug a Prime Timer today!

Love, Jim MacCatain.

Coming Out

A couple was sitting up waiting for their 15 year old son to come home from a social engagement when the boy came into the house with a big smile on his face.

"Hi, Mom! Hi, Dad!" he said breathlessly, "Guess what! I've just had sex for the first time, and it was wonderful!"

His mother turned red and said to her husband, "He's your son, you talk to him." Then she left the room.

The father said, "Son, that's great. Now you've become a man and I'm proud of you. I'm going to celebrate the occasion by buying you that ten-speed bike you've been wanting. I hope you don't mind waiting till pay-day to get it."

"That's OK, Dad." Said the boy. "I couldn't ride it right now anyway. My ass is too sore to sit in on the saddle."

Reflection

I looked into a mirror,
My face relected there
Showed lines of fear and worry,
The strain of daily care.
I looked int a quiet pool,
Green branches framed my face,
A snow-white cloud passed overhead; Some care
seemed to erase.
I found myself in a shady nook,
My cares confessed to Him;
I felt Him near and knew that He
Was looking deep within.
I looked into His loving eyes;
Reflecting back to me
Was one I'd never truly known.
The "Self" He'd helped me be.
I looked into the mirror,
Sweet peace reflected there;
His perfect love had touched my life,
He had erased all care.
