February 2019 Volume 26 Issue 6

President's Note

Greetings, Tulsa Area Prime Timers!

We are in the bleak midwinter, as the poet said, but take heart. In a few weeks, spring will be here!

We had a good December, meeting. And lemon cake and cookies for our refreshments! Yum!

Remember our monthly events: Dine Out, Lunch Bunch, Movie Night, and Breakfast at Duffy's.

Check the newsletter calendar for dates and locations.

See you at our next meeting on February 12th.

Hug a Prime Timer today!

Love, Jim MacCatain.

TAPT and OKEQ Gala 2019

A note to bring to your attention the Gala will be upon us April 27 2019.

The table at Gala has been purchased.

There are ten chairs for Prime Timers.

The tab is 150.00 each.

This will give you to time to join us to honor TAPT's place in the LGBT community.

Happy Birthday!

MOM'S ADVICE.....

A teacher noticed that a little boy at the back of the class was squirming around, scratching his crotch and not paying attention. She went back to find out what was going on. He was quite embarrassed and whispered that he had just recently been circumcised and he was quite itchy. The teacher told him to go down to the principal's office.

He was to phone his mother and ask her what he should do about it. He did it and returned to his class. Suddenly, there was a commotion at the back of the room. She went back to investigate only to find him sitting at his desk with his penis hanging out.

"I thought I told you to call your Mom," she screamed. "I did," he said, "and she told me that if I could stick it out till noon, she'd come and pick me up from school."

When Those Tiny Snowflakes Tumble

When those tiny snowflakes tumble the earth slowly transforms in to land of marshmallow white. Oh, how beautifully adorned! One-by-one they pirouette and bow showing off liveliness and grace, covering mountain peaks and valleys low with shawl of delicate lace.

Branches bend beneath the weight, while forest critters frolic and play in a blanket to freshly fallen snow sparkling with sequins, what a display!

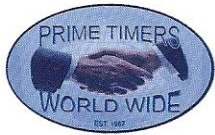

Cheery snowmen will soon take form as folks trod knee-deep in a mound of snow, fires are stoked, hearts mesmerized by the shimmering glows.

So bow our head, offer thanks and then feel free to enjoy Winter's call including the excitement, wonder, and fun when those tiny snowflakes twirl, swirl, and fall.
