March 2019 Volume 26 Issue 7

President's Note

Greetings, Tulsa Area Prime Timers.

I hope that all of you are doing well and staying warm.

Our February meeting was good. Afterward we had cookies and pop. And enjoyed talk and laughter.

Remember our monthly events: Dine Out, Lunch Bunch, Movie Night, and Breakfast at Duffy's.

Check the newsletter calendar for dates and locations. Then join us for fun and fellowship.

See you at our next meeting on March 12th.

Hug a Prime Timer today!

Love, Jim MacCatain.

TAPT has a table at the OKEQ Gala April 27 2019 at 6pm.

As of to date we have 7 seats to fill.

Would you please give some thought into joining Prime Timers for this event.

It is a time to show the chapter to the LGBT community that we are part of it. We are involved in the community make a better place for Prime Timers.

All said and done the Gala is just fun to be at.

Thanks your editor John M.

Happy Birthday!
David Dowland 3-12

The Childproof Life

When I was a kid, we didn't have padding under our jungle gyms. We had rocks. We didn't have safety belts on our sing sets. The whole goal was to get as high as you could, the launch yourself in the stratosphere.

We rode our bikes without helmets. Without shoes. Sometimes without clothes. We played in creeks, ran through abandoned houses, went dam sliding, jumped on trampolines, ran our go-karts straight into oncoming traffic, and played with BB guns, with half the time spent pumping them up 'cause we'd heard you could take out an eye.

We parachuted out of trees with bedsheets, threw lawn darts at each other and had no sunblock, so we got burned to a crisp. Summer officially started when the first kid turned as red as a thermometer. Then we has peeling parties.

We blew up Barbie dolls with M-80s, we ran with scissors, and our Halloween costumes were made of asbestos.

But for safety, our moms made us wait an hour after we ate before we went swimming.

Robert G. Lee

Forever Friends

Friends are like fragrant flower
That blossom in the Spring,
Gladdening our heavy hearts
With the friendship that they bring.
Friends are like the angels,
Much live they do convey;
They bring us hope and happiness
And guide us along our way.
Friends are the roses of life's bouquet And I can't comprehend,
A life in which I World not have...
At least one forever friend.
