Optical illusion

I was riding my bike through a small town traffic slowed to a crawl. Peering ahead, I saw an officer beside his patrol car holding what appeared to be a radar gun. But as I got closer, I realized that it was really a hair dryer. "What's up with that?" I asked. "Our gun's being repaired," said the cop. Surveying the slow parade of cars, he added, But they don't know that."

Want to Make a Difference?

The OKEQ Gala is coming up fast April 18 2020.

We have 4 members sign up for the TAPT table at this years event.

This is our reminder to the LGBTQ community in Tulsa that senior gay men have an organization just for them.

TAPT has 4 new members this year. Being out and visible is the key. The Gala is the vehicle.

Wesley and Omer had the vision in 1993 to have TAPT be visible and viable gay men in Tulsa.

We want to be part of the 40 years of the LGBTQ journey in Tulsa.

Thanks Editor John M.

Reminder Tulsa can be warm. Pic from the past!

WORKING THE SYSTEM

An old man lived alone in Minnesota. He wanted to spade his potato garden, but it was very hard work. His only son, who would have helped him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and mentioned his predicament.

Dear Son: I am feeling pretty bad, because it looks like I won't be able to plant my potato garden this year. I hate to miss doing the garden because your mother always loved planting time. I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. If you were here, all my troubles would be over. I know you would dig the plot for me, if you weren't in prison.

Love Dad

Shortly, the old man received this telegram. "FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, Dad, don't dig up the garden! That's where I buried all the GUNS!"

At 4 AM the next morning, a dozen FBI agents and local police officers showed up and dug up the entire garden without finding any guns. Confused, the old man wrote another note to his son telling what happened and asking him what to do next. His son's reply was "Go ahead and plant your potatoes, Dad. It's the best I could do for you at this time."

Thank You for Remembering

Thank you for remembering
 So many yesterdays,
 For all the smiles and all the joys
 Along the country ways,
 For dreams to dream- each gentle touch
 And hope that was our own,
 Each moment shared so tenderly,
 The sweetest we have known.
 Thank you for so many things,
 The way you'd understand,
 Whatever problems- mattered not,
 You'd lend a helping hand;
 So beautiful this dear old world
 That brought a life complete,
 From early dawn to sunset hours
 As day and night would meet.
 We knew so many magic times
 A happiness untold,
 In golden sun all bright and warm
 Or Winter snowflakes bold,
 It seemed all Nature smiled on us
 And taught our hearts to sing;
 I thank you dearest friend of mine
 For sweet remembering.
