Trip to Tahlequah visited Cherokee Court House

My three year old great-grandson and I spent the day reading, watering flowers, and baking cookies. As he sat on a stool in front of the oven waiting for the cookies, he turned to me with a sense of excitement and announced, "This is the greatest day of my life!"

He Gave Her A Lift

My mom uses a wheelchair. Our city has buses with wheelchair lifts, but they slow things down and drivers don't like that. They often say, "the lift is broken." One day, Mom was waiting at the bus stop while a man snored on the nearby bench. But when the driver mad his lame excuse, the man on the bench awoke and yelled at the driver for his heartlessness toward this old disabled lady. Ashamed, the driver "miraculously" discovered that the lift worked after all. My mom got on the bus, and the guy on the bench went back to sleep.

The Long and Short of It

I am an 84 year old gentleman who stands five feet four inches tall, from the basketball crazy state of Indiana. Recently, my wife and I were having dinner at a local restaurant. Our waiter was a young man, around six foot eight. Naturally, I asked him if played basketball. He looked down at me, replied, "Yes, I do," and then asked me if I played minature golf.

My 85 year old grandfather was rushed to the hospital with possible concussion. The doctor asked him a series of questions:

"Do you know where you are?"

"I'm at Rex hospital."

"What city are you in?"

"Raleigh"

"Do you know who I am?"

"Dr. Hamilton."

My grandfather then turned to the nurse and said, "I hope he doesn't ask me any more questions."

"Why?" she asked.

"Because all of those answers were on his badge."
