It has been a year the Covid has been with us.
It must be best time to live in Tulsa. No TAPT member as got sick from the virus.

I would say it is the clean living Prime Timers live.

I would have put down to many qualifiers to say that with a straight face.

Thanks for being friends. We checked on each other.

We kept each other in up beat mood. We got together

Ol' Timers

We call 'em Ol' Timers
But I wonder if we will see
The value of that ol' man
In the park – there by the tree.
He may not seem important -
There's no sine upon his shows, As we pass him with our briefcase
To a world beyond his view.
But his value may be greater
And his worth a thousand time
When we stop to think of sacrifice
For this land of yours and mine.
Like when the country was in trouble
And they fought to keep her free,
It is taken all for granted
What they did for you and me.
So when we see Old Glory waning,
Let's not forget who kept her there,
And give respect and gratitude
To those Ol' Timers everywhere.
We call 'em Ol' Timers
And I hope they'll always be
In the hearts of those who treasure
The joy of being free.
We call 'em Ol' Timers
But I wonder if we will see
The value of that ol' man
In the park - there by the tree.
Chet Stanhope

It's a Hallelujah

It's a hallelujah morning,
The sun came up today!
The birds outside my window
Sing their hymns of praise!
It's a hallelujah morning,
I'm set to start my day;
A day that's full of promise,
As I travel on life's way.
It's a hallelujah morning,
I'll never sigh or moan:
For my heart... it just rejoices,
Knowing God's still on the throne!
