The success of a dinner party depends not so much on what you put on the table as who you put on the chairs.

The difference between Winners and Whiners

The Whiner says, "I don't know, and I'm sure nobody else knows, either."

The winner says, "Let's find out."

When a Whiner makes a mistake, he says, "It wasn't my fault."

When a Winner makes a mistake, he says, "I'm responsible, and I'm going to see what can be done to set things right."

When a Winner makes a commitment, he honors it.

When a Whiner makes a promise, he keeps it if he doesn't change his mind.

A Winner feels responsible for more than his job calls for.

A Whiner says, "That's not my department,"

A Winner says, "There ought to be a better way to do it."

A Whiner says, "That's the way it always has been done, Why change?"

A winner paces himself and rarely bites off more he can chew.

A Whiner has only has two speeds-- hysterical and lethargic.

A winner says, "I could be a lot better, and I'm going to try to improve."

The Whiner says, "I'm not as bad as a lot of other people."
