Keeping Omer and Wesley's vision for TAPT in mind. It was this month in 1993. We thank them for their faith in Tulsa men to form TAPT. I am sure it blows their wildest imagination that we are still here nearly 30 years later. Take a bow TAPT members for keeping their dream and Woody's alive. Thanks John M.

Our Lady

Our lady holds the torch so high
 Within the harbor there,
 Beneath the blue of Heaven's sky
 A freedom true to share
 She welcomes all who proudly come
 Across the vast blue sea,
 A heritage for everyone,
 Our land of liberty.
 Our country stands for, oh, so much,
 Democracy-- our own,
 A caring heart-- a loving touch
 Within our happy home,
 A country built on hope and faith,
 A strength so wise and true,
 The patriots who fought and died
 To save this land for you,
 Our anthem that we proudly sing
 To prove our faith and worth,
 With all the courage peace can bring
 The greatest land on earth.
 We marvel at each vision bright,
 The principles we share,
 And know of lasting peace and light,
 Our lady greets us there.

Friendship Candle

Ignite your friendship candle
 By setting the fire aglow,
 Show kindness, love, and mercy,
 Permit goodwill to flow.
 Open the corridors of your heart--
 Practice hospitality, extend a welcome hand,
 It's then you'll make a wonderful difference
 Wave that beautiful friendship fan!
 Hold firmly unto loyalty
 By being true in heart and soul-
 Refuse too engage in harsh words,
 Just remember the golden rule.
 Facades and fake relationships
 Grow dim with passing years.
 So be honest in your motives,
 Be sympathetic with folks' tumbling tears.
 Ask God to send a true friend your way
 And He will faithfully provide
 A person who will shine encouragement
 And remain steadfastly by your side.
 If you want a friend, be a friend,
 Lend a tender heart and listening ear,
 Fell free to ignite you friendship candle
 For loyal friends are very dear.
