Love, John Madigan

Is there a (Real) Doctor in the house

I have a Phd in acoustics, and I spent my career working as a research physicist. On my son's 11th birthday, we invited his sixth-grade class over to celebrate. I walked into the dining room just as my son was explaining to a classmate, whose father is a physician, "My dad's a doctor, too, but not the kind that does anybody any good!"

Happy Birthday!

Want to Make a Difference?

A big thanks to TAPT members for your part in the 29th anniversary dinner September 10.

We were 36 members strong coming into the new year. At last monthly meeting two new members Matt and Brandon joined TAPT.

All members bring meaning to being Prime Timers. We are from all walks of life, each with a talent and wisdom to share. As for me life would be dull without Prime Timers. I always look forward to a TAPT event. We have this connection that is common with all our members.

Thanks Prime Timers. I will be thinking of everyone at the Worldwide convention. I look for a great time with new and old friends. John Madigan

Ralph the birthday boy to young to be a member of TAPT!!!!

America

America-- I call you mine,
 The prairies wide--the hills that climb.
 Each river that would reach the sea,
 Our heritage-- democracy.
 America --oh, wondrous land,
 With loving heart and outstretched hand,
 A home for all--'neath freedom's light,
 Believing in the good and right.
 America-- forever true,
 Beneath our flag-- red, white and blue,
 Beneath our flag—a trust to keep,
 A harvest rich the worthy reap.
 From sea to sea-- oh, wondrous span,
 A dream worthwhile for every man,
 No other country quite as fine...
 America-- I'm proud you're mine.

A Lesson In Song

I'm so very happy today,
 I've put my worries on hold..
 And there they'll stay, at least for today,
 For I found joy untold.
 I awoke at dawn in my humble abode,
 And stretched 'till my muscles were toned ...
 Then I took a walk down a country road,
 As through green fields I roamed.
 'Twas there I found such happiness
 In a little sing bird...
 My Heart was truly, truly blessed
 At the sweetest song I'd heard.
 So, I sang along with this meadowlark--
 It taught me a song or two...
 It warbles whenever the skies are dark
 And when the skies are blue.
 I know not what tomorrow may bring,
 I'll completely dismiss the thought...
 I know that today my heart will sing
 A song the meadowlark taught.
