A Chapter of PrimeTimers® Worldwide

April 2022 Volume 29 Issue 8

President's Note

Greetings, Tulsa Area Prime Timers!

Thanks to you for being safe in March. Sure did miss some of you.

The TAPT events for March we had a great turnout.

We did have Game Night on March 19 with 8 players. Thanks for being there.

We had lunch bunch on March 18 . Went to Charlie's Chicken, 13 members had time to visit.

We had Dine out at the Saffron March 10. 11 member present for the meal.

Jim got us to the movies Uncharted March 15. 5 members enjoyed time together.

With April showers comes May flowers. With Easter on April 17, every Prime Timer needs a new spring outfit. Just save me the bunny ears so I will be your Prime Timer forever.

Thanks to TAPT members who have signed up for the TAPT table at the OKEQ Gala 2022 on April 30 2022.

See you at our next meeting on March 8. The The Equality Center is our meeting place.

Hug a Prime Timer today!

"Be seriously cheerful and cheerfully serious" Isaac Watts Love, John Madigan

Myth: A tree can act as sufficient shelter during a thunderstorm.

Fact: No. Standing underneath or near a tree is the second most dangerous place to be during a thunderstorm; the most dangerous is being outside in an open space. An enclosed building with wiring and plumbing is the safest place to be during a storm. Remember: Trees, sheds, picnic shelters, tents or covered porches will not protect you from lightning.

NOOA

Happy Birthday!

Kids say what they hear

While working to deliver lunches to the elderly and shut-ins, I used to take my 4 year old daughter along. She was unfailingly intrigued by the various appliances of the elderly, particularly the canes, walkers and wheelchairs. One day I found her staring at a pair of false teeth soaking in a glass. I braced myself for the inevitable barrage of questions. She merely turned and whispered, "The tooth fairy will never believe this!"

The benefit for attending the TAPT monthly meeting

Garden Forgive

Divinity blossoms where seeds have been sown

To forgive and then, thus, to be free
Of the grudges and pains from wounds of conflict

Which had frozen the soul deep in me.
I called on the Spirit to help heal the sores.
Seeds of forgiveness were sown,
With water and sunshine, with toiling and strife,

Plants of good health were then grown.
And as I forgave, the resentment was freed:
Regrets and deep hurts were unveiled.
I patently watched as each plant, now with buds,

Would soon bring bright blossoms! New sails...

Were now in the realm of my forgiving heart!
Blossoms of beauty galore
Awaited me there in my Garden Forgive;
My soul once again was restored!

Coming Out

A couple was sitting up waiting for their 15 year old son to come home from a social engagement when the boy came into the house with a big smile on his face.

"Hi, Mom! Hi, Dad!" he said breathlessly,
"Guess what! I've just had sex for the first time, and it was wonderful!"

His mother turned red and said to her husband, "He's your son, you talk to him."
Then she left the room.

The father said, "Son, that's great. Now you've become a man and I'm proud of you. I'm going to celebrate the occasion by buying you that ten-speed bike you've been wanting. I hope you don't mind waiting till pay-day to get it."

"That's OK, Dad." Said the boy. "I couldn't ride it right now anyway. My ass is too sore to sit in on the saddle."
