Here is a Smile

If you can't think of a word, say, I forgot the English word for it. That way people will think you are bilingual instead of an idiot

I'm at a place in my life where errands are starting to count as going out.

I'm getting tired of being part of a major historical event.

Happy Birthday!

TWELVE COMMANDMENTS FOR SENIORS:

- #1 - Talk to yourself. There are times you need expert advice
 - #2 - "In Style" are the clothes that still fit.
 - #3 - You don't need anger management. You need people to stop pissing you off.
 - #4 - Your people skills are just fine. It's your tolerance for idiots that needs work.
 - #5 - The biggest lie you tell yourself is, "I don't need to write that down. I'll remember it."
 - #6 - "On time" is when you get there.
 - #7 - Even duct tape can't fix stupid, but it sure does muffle the sound.
 - #8 - It would be wonderful if we could put ourselves in the dryer for ten minutes, then come out wrinkle-free and three sizes smaller.
 - #9 - Lately, you've noticed people your age are so much older than you.
 - #10 - Growing old should have taken longer.
 - #11 - Aging has slowed you down, but it hasn't shut you up.
 - #12 - You still haven't learned to act your age and hope you never will.
- .And one more: "One for the road" means peeing before you leave the house.

Trials

As unexpected trials surface
 Along our walks of life,
 We bow to being vulnerable,
 Accepting each new strife.
 These things that happen suddenly
 Were not in what we'd planned.
 We can't just override them;
 We need a helping hand
 To get us through the tough times.
 We humbly seek out aid -
 It seems our life is spinning
 And nothing 'round us staid.
 Somehow, in time, we're through them,
 With lessons learned and gleaned.
 The trials and tribulations
 Are part of where we've been
 And add to who this person is
 And who he's grown to be.
 The trials set before us
 Make up the you and me.
