Love, John Madigan

What a great time at our tri-club gathering in Pawnee. 6 PrimeTimers had so much fun meeting the PrimeTimers from Wichita and PrimeTimers for OKC. There were 16 gorgeous and happy men in one place. We out talked each other as PrimeTimers have done since Woody started PrimeTimers. Thanks to Martin Mendoza for getting us together. Thanks Bob for driving. Got to do it again. John M.

Happy Birthday!

Want to Make a Difference?

Two important and member able events are about happen for Tulsa Area PrimeTimers.

The first is the election of officers to the Board of Dictators for next two year cycle. Bob Blum, our member-at-large, will be calling all members to step up to give your time and talent to TAPT.

Please give it some serious thought. You kept the club going for 30 years. You will keep it going for the future PrimeTimers.

The second is our 30th Anniversary party in September. Wow three decades of wonderful and beautiful men have come and gone. We now have 41 such men as members to start our next decade. We need to celebrate this mile stone for all of us. To pause a moment to remember our founding Fathers making this possible. Big thanks to Wesley and Omar for their foresight.

Thanks President John M.

A Special Day

Make every day a special day,
 Don't greet is with a frown;
 Wake up to all god's blessings
 He's scattered all around.
 A sunbeam shining through the glass,
 A bird up in the tree,
 A busy bee and butterfly--
 These things and more I see.
 Make every day a special day,
 Let laughter fill the air--
 And let someone along the way
 Know how much you care.
 Make every day a special day,
 Watch the clouds up in the sky;
 And like the years before us,
 How quickly they pass by.
 And when the shadows gently fall,
 And the sun sinks in the West,
 Be glad you have each special day
 To try to do your best.

Dorothy C. Deitz

The Sunshine Hour

It's the sunshine hour in the afternoon,
 The flowers in my garden are all in bloom.
 And everywhere I look, I see
 Glorious foliage and leafy trees.
 The Music of nature is all around,
 Little birds join with their happy sounds
 As the lift tiny heads to sing
 Their songs of praise to Heaven ring.
 Splashes of colors meet my eyes
 As flowers bend with butterflies.
 Oh, what a sight to feed the soul--
 A garden makes a person whole.
 When God's glorious creation we see,
 Sickness and sadness have to flee;
 A work of art in every flower--
 All Nature sings, 'tis the sunshine hour
